Personal Reflection

What do you consider your strongest personal asset?

Examples: leadership, reliability, creativity, work ethic, problem-solving, curiosity, teamwork.

I think College preparedness is a strength because my mom has asked me if I plan on going to college after high school and she tells me to go to get paid better and get a good job in the future. Self-management is a strength because I put my time on work and take time to do my tests and get a good score on my stuff. Thinking skills is a strength because I am creative most of the time and always have a second plan for my things, thinking skills is also a strength because am always thinking, i always have something in my head and something to think about. Relationships and communication skills are a strength because I communicate with people well since I've been working on them. Relationships are a strength because I don't usually lose my friendships and stay friends with them most of the time.

What three adjectives best describe you?

1. Patience
2. Responsible
3. Orginazed
